Week 3
Laboratory Task: Exploring DocuShare

1. Go to the KM Lab page by following the links. From the SIMS home page, select the Research option and then the Knowledge Management Research Program. Click on the KM Lab Banner

   Click on the KM Products tab at the top of the page.

   Register as a Member using your own login and password. The login provided last week no longer works.

2. Taking the Docushare Tutorial
   • From the KM Lab Home Page, select the KM Systems tab and chose the Docushare website link
   • Select the Take a Tutorial link from the left hand box and them the DocuShare User Tuorial link
   • Work your way through the modules.

3. Reflect on what you have learnt about the DocuShare product from the tutorial particularly in the context of the Olympic Knowledge Transfer website prototype that you explored last week.
