Key Sources Relating to Socio-legal Frameworks in Cyberspace

International

WorldLII >> Categories >> Subjects >> Cyberspace >>
http://www.worldlii.org/catalog/2022.html

Australia

Web Sites of relevant government organisations:

Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade electronic commerce page for policy and information about developments in countries that are Australia's main trading partners: http://www.dfat.gov.au/apec/apec_ecom.html
National Office for the Information Economy for information and IT policy:
http://www.noie.gov.au

Canada

Web Sites of relevant government organisations:

Chief Information Officer home page for links to information policy, and IT/IM Standards: http://www.cio-dpi.gc.ca/cio-dpi/index_e.asp
Department of Justice home page for links to relevant law on PKI, privacy, Bill C-6 Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act, and the proposed Uniform Electronic Commerce Act:

USA

Web Sites of relevant government and industry organisations:

CommerceNet, an industry association and lobby group for Internet Commerce:
http://www.commerce.net
US Department of Justice, Office of Information Privacy:
http://www.usdoj.gov/oip/oip.html
US Office of Management and Budget, Information and Regulatory Policy:
http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/infereg/
Chief Information Officers Council: http://www.cio.gov
Federal Advisory Commission on Electronic Commerce:
http://www.ecommercecommission.org (Final report brought down April 2000, site open for archival purposes only).

Law and Archiving Websites

Foundation for Scientific Research in Cooperation with the Antwerp City Archives and the Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and Informatics of the University of Leuven, Guidelines for Digital Archiving in Flemish Institutions and Services, http://www.antwerpen.be/david

ARMA International Educational Foundation, Legal obstacles to email destruction http://www armaedfoundation.org/main.html

http://www.archives.ca/03/0301_e.html

A list of the laws and authorities that affect NARA, the National Archives and Records Administration of the US:
http://www.archives.gov/about_us/basic_laws_andAuthorities/basic_laws_andAuthorities.html